The Roomy Home

Has FOURTEEN per cent MORE floor area than the average house of the SAME price. It has ALL the sunlight and ventilation of our "Box House." It has ALL the important comforts of our "Homes of 100 Ideas" and it has MANY of the architectural details of "Ye Olde Colonial Homes."

Middaugh and Shannon,

Inc., Owner.

At $4,500

"The Roomy Home" will prove a REVELATION as to what Middaugh & Shannon, Incorporated, have accomplished for THE money, and to show their great confidence in THIS property they offer the most liberal terms in the history of their business.

$300 Cash,

$32.50 a month, and of this monthly payment you SAVE the high average of $21.39. SUPPOSE you were using $32.50 worth of groceries a month and your grocery man would say: I will continue to give YOU $32.50 worth of groceries each month, but we will ARRANGE so that $21.39 will COME BACK to you as money SAVED. You would KNOW that was a good proposition. This IS THE same. It requires ONLY $300 to grasp it. The most liberal terms EVER offered to the homeseeker.

Remember, in "THE ROOMY HOME" every room is roomy. ALL openings on the first floors have glass doors; there is an ATTIC, the bathroom flush is not a NUISANCE, there is a REAL hot-water plant, electric lights, HARDWOOD floors, fire logs, porches back AND front, wash trays, servants' closet, picket fences and, what is the MOST important thing of all, A REFINED neighborhood, where 97 per cent of the people OWN their own homes.

TAKE THE 9th street cars DIRECT to Park road, walk ONE square to WARDER st., one to 449 NEWTON ST. N.W. THE EXHIBIT HOME is now finished. Open EVERY DAY until dark. You will NEVER buy the average house after you have seen "THE ROOMY HOME."

IN THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

FAIR SKIES FOR MRS. TAFT'S GARDEN PARTY.

Other Events Past and of the Future.

Timely Personal Notes.

Mrs. Taft will hold the first of her May garden parties today from 5 to 7, when official and resident society, as well as the foreigners and other delegates now here at the Red Cross conference, will be present, with the entire diplomatic circle. The garden party which Mrs. Taft had specially arranged for the pleasure of the Red Cross delegates on the 17th will be omitted, and invitations were extended to them in the past few days for this afternoon's event.

The Japanese ambassador and Viscount Chinda will go to New York May 20 and the following day will be the guests of honor at a dinner, with Gen. and Mrs. Stewart L. Woodford as hosts.

Mrs. Bourke Cockran is now expecting the arrival of her father, the United States minister to Spain, and her sister, Miss Marjorie Ide, in New York. The marriage of Miss Ide and Mr. Shane Leslie will take place next month. Mr. Leslie was taken ill with grippe some weeks ago while on his lecture tour for the Gaelic League, and with his mother, he is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bourke Cockran at Sands Point.

The Italian ambassador and the Marchese Cusani entertained at dinner last night in compliment to the Italian delegates to the Red Cross.

Their guests included Senator and Mrs. Rayner, Count Luigi Aldrovandi, Commander Luigi Ferrero, Col. Filippo Riba, and Capt. Mario Perera, who represent the Italian government; Conte Gian Giacomo della Somaglia, Lieut. Col. Giuseppe Brozzi, and Dr. Lionello Perera, representing the Italian Red Cross; Miss Boardman, Miss Meyer, Miss Alva Meyer, Miss Britton, Miss Clover, Miss Crosby, Miss Oliver, Miss Rogers, Miss Whiting, Donna Beatrice Cusani, Count Czekonks, Chevalier Cetaiani, counselor of the Italian embassy; Chevalier Viti, and Chevalier Dr. Cecconi.

The Secretary of War entertained at dinner last night in honor of the governor general of the Philippines, Mr. Forbes. Invited to meet him were the Secretary of the Navy, Senator Lodge, Senator Root, Senator Burton, the governor of Porto Rico, Col. R. B. Representative Olmsted, Representative W. A. Jones, Representative Mott, the chief of staff of the War Department, Mr. C. G. Gorgas, Col. McIntire, Maj. Henry T. Allen, Maj. Chelton, Maj. Duncan, Capt. McCoy, Mr. Frankfurter and Mr. Ralph H. Forbes.

The Congressional Club will have as its chief guests at a starlight reception and tea today the women delegates to the Red Cross conference.

Mrs. Roberts, president of the club, will have her pleasant duties shared by Mrs. Sweet of Michigan and Mrs. Stone of Illinois, who will preside at the tea and also by Mrs. William Sulzer of New York, Mrs. Swanson of Virginia, Mrs. Taylor of Colorado, Mrs. Thompson of Wisconsin and Mrs. Underhill.

Brig. Gen. H. G. Freeman, U. S. A., retired, and Mrs. Freeman are at the New Willard for a few days.

Mrs. Williams, wife of Lieut. C. L. Williams, U. S. A., is visiting the parents of the latter at the home of her mother, Mrs. Jackson, near New Orleans, where she is making it advisable to get away from that point.

Rev. Paul Sperry of Brockton, Mass., and his family are the guests of his mother, Hannah B. Sperry, 1437 Q street.

The Rt. Rev. James Henry Darlington, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of Harrisburg, who has been in the house since his return from Ward Denys has returned to Harrisburg.

At the marriage of Miss Eleanor Anderson and Ensign Rush Stoughton, May 4, at St. N. N., next Tuesday evening, May 14, at St. N. N., the bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Dorothy Anderson, as maid of honor, and Miss Harriet Bayne of this city and Miss Gay Lloyd, daughter of Bishop Lloyd of New York, as bridesmaids. Rev. Pay, U. S. M. C., will attend his brother as best man, and Rev. C. Ernest Smith, rector of St. Thomas' Church, will officiate at the presence of the two contracting families.

There will be two ushers, Ensign D. V. Meade, U. S. N., and Ensign D. O. Mills, U. S. N.

The wedding reception will follow at 8:30.

The ceremony was to have been in St. Thomas' Church, but the plans were changed after the invitations were issued because of the death of the mother of the bridegroom.

Miss Dagmar Wetmore and Mr. Charles Sprague Sargent, Jr., of Brooklyn, Mass., were married yesterday in Grace Church Chantry. The bride was given away by her stepfather, Dr. Markoe, and was attended by her half-sister, Miss Annette Markoe. Her gown was ivory satin, made panner fashion and edged with white lace. The bride was crowned with a large diamond pendant. Miss Markoe was in pale blue silk, ruffled with white lace, with which she wore a large hat, trimmed with a ruche of blue tulle and a small pink rose. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Rear Admiral French E. Chadwick has joined Mrs. Chadwick in this city.

Mrs. Mandeville Carlisle and Miss Merriam gave a dance at Dower House last night, which Miss Taft attended.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Vivia Fisher, only daughter of Mrs. Joel Ellis Fisher of New York, and Giuseppe Marie Flaminio, of the "L'Espresso," one of the leading journals of Rome, founded by the Italian statesman and journalist, Flaminio Piccoli, in the Eternal City. Miss Fisher was introduced to society last winter at a ball given by her mother. She is a native of New York, and her father is one of the richest men in Rome. He is thirty-two years old, a graduate of the University of Genoa, a fellow of the Naples University and advisory editor of the American journal of Sociology. He is permanent secretary of the Italian Society of Sociology.

Mrs. Fisher and her daughter sailed for Europe February 21, to spend the spring and summer abroad. The wedding will take place in Rome at the end of next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reid Rogers and their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Reid Rogers, will sail on the 15th for France and will travel for some months on the continent.

Among the passengers sailing on the steamship "König Albert," Saturday, from New York for Naples and Genoa via Gibraltar and Algiers, are Mrs. Henry A. Seymour, Miss Rae M. Seymour and Miss Helen W. Seymour of this city.

Mrs. George Shiras, 34, Miss E. K. Shiras and George P. Shiras are at Atlantic City.

Miss Yvonne Townsend is in Philadelphia, and was among the party of sixty-two entertained at Sedgley Club by Mrs. James Francis Sullivan.

NIECE IN ENGLAND GETS BULK OF BUTT ESTATE

Court Appoints Brother of President's Late Military Aid to Act as Collector.

Miss Grace Arrington Butt, sixteen years old, now residing in Liverpool, England, will take the bulk of the estate of her uncle, Maj. Archibald Willingham Butt, late military aid to President Taft, who perished in the Titanic disaster. Maj. Butt executed his will last year after being requested by his remaining estate to convert it into cash and paid over to the "eldest child of his two brothers."

Lewis Ford Butt of Athens, Ga., one of the brothers, is married but has no children. The other brother, Edward H. Butt of Liverpool, has only one child, Grace Arrington Butt. As Miss Butt is an infant in the eyes of the law, the court will be asked to name Maj. Blanton Winslow, U. S. A., to represent her in the proceedings looking to the probate of the will of her uncle.

Extent of Estate Unknown.

The extent of the estate of Maj. Butt is unknown at this time, according to the petition for the probate of his will, filed by his brother, Lewis Ford Butt.

Maj. Butt says the late military aid owned premises 2000 G street northwest and certain personal property "consisting of bonds, stocks and money in the value of which is unknown to him."

Pending the action of the court on his application for the probate of his brother's will, Lewis F. Butt asked Justice Wright to appoint a collector of the estate to take charge of it until the necessary consent of the brother in England can be obtained to the probate. Justice Wright designated Mr. Butt to serve as collector and asked his brother, Lewis F. Butt, and Attorney Herbert and Micou represent the estate.
